MEDIA RELEASE

On December 17, 2018 at approximately 0727 hours, Treasure Island Police Department officers were dispatched to 110 Sun Isle Circle in reference to a welfare check/contact. It was reported the victim contacted a friend the previous night and told her she was battered by her husband, the defendant (Kenneth Wozny). The victim's daughter attempted phone contact with her mother/victim and stepfather (Wozny) and was told by Wozny her mother "was gone." Several other alarming statements were made by Wozny regarding his wife/victim to family members. Upon police arrival, Wozny angrily exited the residence and ordered police off his property and refused to allow officers in to check on his wife.

After multiple attempts to speak with Wozny and the victim, and sufficient reason to believe the victim was inside the residence and in danger; officers made entry into the lower level of the unit. Wozny then angrily exited again yelling at officers to "shoot me!" multiple times. Officers were able to detain Wozny in the stairwell where he physically resisted officers, attempting to push them down the stairs. Wozny was taken into custody and victim was found severely battered inside the residence. She reported she was held against her will in the bedroom for the previous three days, while her phone and car keys were taken from her. The victim stated she believed Wozny was going to kill her. Wozny was charged with Felony Domestic Battery by Strangulation, Battery on the Elderly (F), False Imprisonment / Tampering with a Witness (F) and Resisting Arrest with Violence (F).
